Regulation No. (28) of the year 2025

Data Disclosure Regulation

Issued pursuant to Paragraph (C) of Article (24) of the Personal Data Protection Law No. (24) Of 2023

Article (1)

This Regulation shall be called the "Data Disclosure Regulation for the Year 2025", and it shall come into effect as of the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

Article (2)

A- The terms and expressions used in this Regulation shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this regulation, unless the context indicates otherwise:

The Law : Personal Data Protection Law.

The Council : The Personal Data Protection Council.

Data Disclosure : Anything that enables others to know about data, whether by viewing, circulating, publishing, transferring, using, displaying, or sending it by any means or tool.

B- The definitions provided in the Personal Data Protection Law shall apply wherever they appear in this regulation unless the context indicates otherwise.

Article (3)

A- Disclosure of data shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. Maintaining the protection and security of the data.
2. The disclosure must be proportionate to the purpose for which it is requested.
3. The disclosure shall not negatively affect the data subject's ability to exercise their rights.
4. The disclosure shall not result in identifying the data subject directly or indirectly.
5. The disclosure must be limited to the minimum amount of data necessary to achieve the specific purpose of processing, and the data shall be retained only for the period required to achieve that purpose.

B- Without prejudice to the provisions of applicable legislation, personal data may be disclosed without obtaining the data subject's consent if the purpose of the disclosure is any of the following:

1. Implementation of judicial procedures or for security-related purposes.
2. Compliance with applicable laws and regulations.
3. Fulfillment of international agreements and treaties to which the Kingdom is a party.
4. Protection of the life or vital interests of the data subject.

Article (4)

The Controller is responsible for disclosing the Data Subject's to the Processor, Recipient, or other individuals authorized by them, and within the limits of the powers granted to them, in a manner that is consistent with the nature of their duties. The security, technical, and organizational measures taken by the Processor, Recipient, or authorized persons must comply with the applicable security, technical, and organizational safeguards and instructions.

Article (5)

When disclosing personal data based on a request submitted by the Data Subject, the Unit, the judiciary, or any public authority under applicable laws, the Controller must ensure that such disclosure does not violate the provisions of this Regulation.

Article (6)

The Council shall issue the instructions and decisions necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this Regulation.
